

VEACESLAV (SLAVA) CERNAVCA - clarinet

Veaceslav Cernavca was born 1979 in Chisinau, Moldavia.

During his studies at the conservatory of Chisinau he won several international music competitions. 1997 he received a scholarship for the Richard Strauss conservatory in Munich. At the Hochschule für Musik in Munich he studied with Prof. Ulf Rodenhäuser and Prof. Leonid Chizhik.

Veaceslav Cernavca is soloist at the Philharmonie of Nations, he is a member of the Yehudi Menuhin foundation and obtained a scholarship at the Villa Musica, one of Germanys most important chamber music academies. He is a guest clarinetist at the Munich chamber orchestra and teaching clarinet at the Munich conservatory since 2004.

Vaececlav Cernavca is playing concerts in the classical, jazz, klezmer and east european genre all over Europe.

He is a member of Kolsimcha since 2004.